The Sabin Family of America

J. S. Griswold

1585691

THE SABIN FAMILY OF AMERICA

There was published in January, 1882, a sketch of the four earliest generations of the Sabin Family in America.

William Sabin, the early progenitor, we find in the Town of Rehoboth, Mass., in 1642.

He was the father, by two wives, of some twenty children; sixteen of whom are mentioned in his will, made in 1685.

The four who are not mentioned were two who died in childhood; a daughter who died soon after marriage and Nathaniel, who was killed in the King Phillip Indian War (June, 1676). The latter two, however, left children.

The family soon scattered, going to Woodstock and Pomfret, Conn., though some members remained in Rehoboth.

From this progenitor has sprung the Sabin family of today.

There have been several pamphlets issued, dealing with different branches of the family.

The scope of this one is to trace the descendants of Joel Sabin, who was of the fifth generation from the founder of the family, in America, William Sabin.

JOEL SABIN settled in central New York and later moved to northern Illinois. From the latter place his descendants scattered, most of them going westward, until at this writing, the great majority of them are settled in California on the Pacific Coast.

All of the known descendants of Joel Sabin, save one, have been recorded (correctly, we hope) and we have taken much pleasure in gathering this information.

The compiler has for his given name, Joel Sabin, and is connected with the family through his Mother, who was the daughter of our common grandfather, JOEL SABIN.

This pamphlet will be sent to the address of every one of the cousins whose whereabouts can be obtained. The expense is being borne by the compiler.

These little books were printed at a cost of forty cents each. If there are those who would like to pay for their copy, they may do so, but they are very welcome to the little pamphlet, if they do not.

A few extra copies can be had if desired.

It is my earnest hope that this information may bring the members of the clan into a little closer relationship and stimulate in us a proper pride in the honored name which we bear.

JOEL SABIN GRISWOLD.

Pasadena, Calif., Sept. 1st, 1930.

WILLIAM SABIN, the first progenitor, appeared in the town of Rehoboth, Mass., at the organization of the town in 1643.

When he came to America is not known, but tradition says he came from Wales or the south of England, where he had found refuge in flight from France.

He was a Huguenot, and a man of considerable culture; had material possessions as is shown in the account of his estate and his gifts for the relieving of the wants of those who suffered from the ravages of the Indians.

He was one of the leading spirits of Rehoboth in schools, church, and in the affairs at Plymouth.

We do not know who his first wife was but she died shortly after 1660. His second wife was Martha (a twin sister of Mary), daughter of James and Anna Allen of Medfield.

They were married Dec. 22nd, 1663.

Martha was a sister of Nathaniel and Joseph Allen, who married daughters by the former wife.

William Sabin died about 1687. His Will was made June 4th, 1685, and was probated in Boston, July 17th, 1687, during the administration of Governor Andros.

The original will is on file in Boston. In it are mentioned sixteen of his twenty children.

We are descended from Benjamin, the fourth child.

Benjamin resided in Rehoboth until 1675, when he removed to Roxbury, Mass. He was one of the thirteen pioneers who settled Woodstock, Conn., in 1686; the same year they joined in purchasing a large tract of land lying just south of Woodstock (Mashamoquoit) the present town of Pomfret.

He lived in Woodstock until 1705, when he removed to his new purchase. The town of Pomfret was not incorporated until 1713, nor the church organized until 1715, which accounts for his continuing his church relations in Woodstock, after his removal.

He died in Pomfret, July 21st, 1725, aged 80.

His first wife was Sarah (a twin of Mary), daughter of John and Rebecca Polly, of Roxbury. She was born June 2nd, 1650.

He married second, Sarah Parker, July 5th, 1678. She died Jan. 22nd, 1717.

The will of John Polly mentions "the four motherless children of their daughter Sabin to have their mother's part."

Our next progenitor was Nehemiah, the sixth child of Benjajmin. Nehemiah, married first, Elizabeth Boyden of Medfield, Mass. He resided in Medfield until about 1716, when he returned to Pomfret.

Second, he married Ruth Cooper, Dec. 3rd, 1735.

He died July 5th, 1746.
